

HiNation Newsletter - January 2012

While Fitz is leaving us to go back to Singapore, we are pleased to welcome Max Wen Xiang to the office. He will work primarily in marketing and sales throughout 2012. You can reach him at wenxiang.pang@hination.se

- Spotlight on Kilimanjaro? Africana Travel arranges trips to Tanzania, Kenya and Rwanda for all nature and culture enthusiasts. If you choose to climb Kilimanjaro with Africana Travel, you can use HiLights during the trip! Read more about Africana Travel's offerings and how they use HiLight.
- HiLight in Wired: HiLight was reviewed recently by "Gadget Lab" at Wired.com. Read the full review here.
- What do our users do with their HiLights? Trekking in Nepal, travel in India or sailing in Sweden – we've published a number of new HiLight Stories from a few travellers who have used HiLight during their adventures. Read them here!
- New HiLight 102 soon in stock! Deliveries of HiLight 102 have so far been booked in advance, but now we can happily announce that we will receive a new shipment in 2-3 weeks. Book through our website, or if you want to buy 10 pc or more, please contact Max for volume discount. First come first served!

See you soon,
Linda Krondahl
President HiNation AB

PS. If you know someone who should get HiNation newsletter (or you no longer wish to receive it), reply to this email or send a message using the form on our website!

Linda Krondahl, CEO

+46 (0)707-94 92 80

www.hination.com / www.hination.org

Rugged products for portable energ